Can't wait till we're together,

My mind begins to wonder with thoughts of you again,

We imagine you are beside

Our days drag on without you, we long to hold you behind bright sea shells on the sand.

The sun goes down but gentle warmth still lingers on the land.

The music stops but yet it echoes on in sweet refrains.

For every joy that passes something beautiful remains.

Remembering
Cian Bell

No stain was on his little heart, Sin had not entered there.

And innocence slept sweetly on.

That pale white brow so fair he was too pure for this cold earth.

Too beautiful to stay and so God's holy angel bore our darling one away.

Remembering
Cian Bell

How quietly he tiptoed into our world. Softly, only a moment he stayed.
But what an imprint his footprints have left upon our hearts.

To the outside world we all grow old, but not to brothers and sisters. We know each other as we always were. We know each other's hearts. We share private family jokes. We remember family feuds and secrets, family griefs and joys. We live outside the touch of time! This is exactly how I will always remember you both. When you both have a moment don't forget to shine down on us all,
