Remembering
Kevin Couch Dillon

15th August 2018 the worst day of my life I lost my eldest son Kevin he was 31 a young man and to me still a child.
In a lot of ways he was he had autism, he found it hard to do things most people of his age could do. It never stopped me loving him, that night we lost him suddenly I'll never forget the sadness and the feeling that part of me was gone forever. I'll never get that back not till the day I join my dear son in the afterlife. Love you son so much my baby forever missed by me your papa and your brother, sister nephew grandad aunts and uncles and cousins always xxxxx fáth.

 Love Mam & Dad xx

much

Remembering
Leon McGettigan

My dearest son Leon,

I miss you every second since you passed on the 1st of August 2019 only 3 1/2 years of age. You fought your heart condition for so long and unfortunately lost the battle too soon. You will always be remembered as the funny little blond boy with the biggest blue eyes you've ever seen. Daddy, Brian, Hanna and me miss you very much! Hope you found a comfy cloud up there so you can guide and protect us.

Until we meet again...

Love, mummy

Remembering
Luke O' Donovan

Love you to the background radiation
Lots of Love Mum and Dad XOXO

Remembering
Ben Maguire

In sad loving memory of a kind, courageous Son, brother, uncle, who bravely fought stage 4 pancreatic cancer without complaining, Ben died on 2/4/2019 age 32yrs, at home surrounds by his mother, big brother Chris, his sister's Sarah, Donna. I'm proud of the care, compassion in which they treated him in his final days together with a hospice nurse We're all broken hearted at his loss.
In Peace our lovely Son and Brother we are lost without you, you will never forgotten and much loved by us all X

Remembering
Adam Buggy

There has been many a trip over the last few years where some classic Buggy stories were told. I'm sure you were there laughing along with us. You're certainly missed but not forgotten by any means . How could we!

Remembering
Adam Buggy

Adam, my beautiful brother, I miss you more with each passing year.
The pain dissipates, but so do the endless possible conversations, moments and embraces we could have shared over the years.
I like to think we'd be closer than ever by now, even if we were half a world apart. I constantly repeat the same quote, "We spent eighteen full years under the same roof, and that sounds like a long time but it's not". I will continue to do so because it really wasn't. I talk out loud to you sometimes. In a weird way, I like to think you're listening.

Remembering
Ben Ferguson

Ben you were a fabulous son & are missed so much by mom, dad, Mark & Shane.

Remembering
Thomas

We miss you everyday love Mam Dad Emily Ava Olivia
Grace xx

Remembering
Mary

I need to remember my darling sister here. I need the world to know how strong, brave and generous she was. She sparkled like a rare, unidentified gemstone.
I miss her daily and am so glad I had such a precious, funny sister in my life.
I need hugs for and from you.

Love you forever.
Teabag éile! XXX

Remembering
Stephen

Stephen
Nine years coming up on 10.....
Thinking of you each and every day. You are so missed! xx Mum, Dad and Judy and your nieces whom you never got a chance to meet! xxx

Remembering
Robert

Robert, you were taken too soon. Our hearts broke in two the day you got your angel wings. Life will never be the same without you.
Loved and always missed Mam, Trisha and Siobhan
